

Public Holders of the General Register Office Indexes

GRO Indexes online

To view the indexes online visit one of the following websites:

- www.freebmd.org.uk – this is a volunteer project with indexes starting from 1837. The indexes can be viewed free of charge.
- www.familysearch.org - this is the largest collection of free family history, family tree and genealogy records in the world. The website is provided by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints.

The following websites hold copies of index information that can be accessed on a “pay as you view” or subscription basis -

- www.findmypast.com
- www.bmdindex.co.uk
- www.familyrelatives.org
- www.thegenealogist.co.uk
- www.ancestry.co.uk

Once you have the GRO reference number, it's quick and easy to order a certificate online via the Certificate Ordering Service If you don't have the reference number you can still order a certificate but it will take a little longer.

Disclaimer: The General Register Office is not responsible for the content of external internet sites. Whilst every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy and legibility of the index information, this cannot be guaranteed in all cases. Some entries are taken from archive material and the quality of reproduction varies.

GRO indexes available on microfiche in your area

For the latest information on which years' indexes are available in your area please contact the library or office concerned by selecting your chosen country.

Please note holders of GRO Indexes may only have partial sets. It is therefore suggested that contact is made direct to the holder to establish the completeness of the indexes. Opening hours for each centre varies and you are advised to check individual opening times before making travel arrangements.
