Additional Information (Recruitment events, open days, fairs, areas being targeted etc.) The Calderdale bench is currently within 4 persons of its establishment figure of 150 magistrates. At their meeting on the 22nd October 2009 they were satisfied that there were sufficient active bench members to deal with the current caseload. As such they resolved not to actively seek to recruit further members of the bench during the first six months of 2010. The committee will re-visit this issue at their meeting in spring 2010. As a result of the above decision there are no recruitment events currently planned for the first half of 2010 However should any member of the public wish to observe one of our courts as preparation to making an application to be appointed as a magistrate they are very welcome to contact the court on the above number and arrange to sit in on one of the court sessions. Magistrates courts are open to the public but if a potential magistrate wishes to undertake an observation they are advised to contact us so we can give information about the days and times that would be most suitable to observe.

Magistrates have been involved in the administration of justice at a local level for many centuries but their importance to the administration of justice remains as strong today as it ever was.

If you care about local justice and would like to gain valuable skills whilst serving your Community, becoming a magistrate could be the role for you.

You don't need legal experience or qualifications to serve as a magistrate – they come from every imaginable background.

You do need to be aged between 18 and 65 and able to sit for a minimum of 26 half days per year. Magistrates are not paid, but many employers allow time off with pay, or you can claim a loss of earnings allowance. We welcome applications from all sectors of the Community.

If you feel that you can uphold the law and deliver local justice and make a vital contribution to your Community, then contact Mrs. Judith Johnson on 01792 478309 or email her on judith.johnson@hmcourts-service.gsi.gov.uk. For more information visit the Magistrates' website on www.direct.gov.uk/magistrates
