I understand that if I do not do this, I may not receive any further payments, and may have to repay the financial support I have already received.
- I agree that in the event of receiving an overpayment of financial support, I am obligated to repay this in full.

Loan Contract

- a I confirm I have read and understood 'Student loans: A guide to terms and conditions' available online at www.direct.gov.uk/studentfinance

What happens if my household income has dropped since tax year 2010-11?

If your household income has dropped by 15% since tax year 2010-11 you can apply for a 'Current Year Income Assessment'.

This means we would use your expected income for tax year 2012-13 instead of your actual income from tax year 2010-11 when calculating the student's entitlement. However, there must be at least a 15% drop in the overall household income (not just your own income) between these two tax years for us to do this and we will ask for evidence of your 2012-13 income at the end of that tax year.
